OPEN QUESTION

4) Comments regarding the speaker's quality of instruction and teaching ability:

I know it was also said during the workshop, but I thought he handled the one person's criticism really well. It was good modeling for us because there are times when we come across angry clients and critical feedback as well.

It was life changing for me and I have decided to go back to University for a MS because of this webinar.

Again from my perspective, there seemed to be too many question and answer opportunities, and the inservice dragged. Again, perhaps it was my ADHD, or whatever, but the day was much too long. Two days would have been better for me. Or cut back Q&A?

OPEN QUESTION

Comments:

I appreciate Keven's responsiveness to my posted question. I also think Ken did a great job of explaining the schedule through the day and reminding people how/where to find links and make sure everyone was engaged throughout.

N/A.

I had difficulty getting rescheduled from the prior session that was cancelled. Even when I rescheduled I was contacted again as if I had not. I also called and seemed that I got someone's personal phone and was hung up on. These were minor issues, they would not stop me from using J& K but they are feedback.

Comment:

I still miss meeting in person! :)

But I really appreciate the convenience of studying from home. Thanks again for making these workshops possible!

I really enjoyed the whole webinar and I was glad we got to interact with the speaker and the volunteer.

all links were sent out in a timely manner, easy to access and good instructions.

13) Additional Overall Comments, Criticisms, Compliments, and Suggestions (What can we do to improve our programs)?

It was a great training, Dr. Burns and J&K did a wonderful job.

I really appreciated the extra packet with copy-able handouts!

I learned about the Webinar through Dr Burns emails. Dr David Burns is my hero! He takes empathy to a whole new level. Bravo!
