Assessing, Treating, & Managing Suicidal Clients

Presented by

Linda Knauss, Ph.D. ABPP

Overview This training will describe the risk management issues that arise when clients pose an immediate threat of harm to themselves or to others. The discussion will focus on suicidal clients, with special attention to risk assessment and intervention.

- Objectives- Participants will be able to describe:
- Factors that are helpful in evaluating and assessing the risk of suicide.
  - Clinical, ethical, and legal issues involved with the management and treatment of clients who threaten to harm themselves.
  - The importance of training and consultation with colleagues around these issues.

Afternoon Session

Addressing Non-Sexual Boundary Issues: Ethical & Clinical Considerations

Presented by

Linda Knauss, Ph.D. ABPP

Overview Therapeutic boundaries establish guidelines for professional relationships. They provide structure and safety that help prevent harm to clients. However, not every boundary crossing is a problem, and some boundary crossings may even be helpful.

This workshop will provide the opportunity to discuss ethical dilemmas related to accepting gifts, therapeutic touch, non-traditional settings for therapy, and non-sexual relationships after termination. Dr. Knauss will also emphasize the importance of consultation. Participants will be invited to discuss ethical dilemmas from their own practices.

- Objectives - Participants will be able to describe:
- The differences between boundary crossings and boundary violations.
  - Ethical and risk management issues with subtle boundary crossings.
  - Appropriate responses when clients make serious challenges to therapeutic boundaries.

Afternoon Session

1:15 p.m. Boundaries and Multiple Relationships

- Boundary Crossings
- Boundary Violations
- Ethical Decision Making and Boundaries
- Therapist and Client Variables

2:40 Break (coffee, tea, snacks)

2:55 Types of Boundary Crossings

- Gifts
- Therapeutic Touch
- Non-Traditional Settings
- Non-Sexual Relationships after Termination

4:30 p.m. Adjournment (Pick Up Certificates)
