Judy Zarit, Ph.D. and Steven Zarit, Ph.D.

Dr. Steven Zarit completed postdoctoral training at University of Chicago with a focus on clinical geropsychology. He joined the faculty of the Pennsylvania State University in 1986 where he was Assistant Director of the Gerontology Center and head of the Human Development and Family Studies department. In 2016, he retired and was named Distinguished Professor Emeritus at Penn State. He continues as adjunct professor at the Institute of Gerontology, Jönköping University, Jönköping, Sweden. Dr. Steven Zarit has authored, edited or co-authored 18 books and over 350 chapters and articles on family caregiving, Alzheimer's disease and other clinical issues in later life. He served as chair of the Clinical Geropsychology section of the American Psychological Association and of APA's Committee on Aging.

Dr. Judy Zarit received her Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from the University of Southern California in 1982. She taught undergraduate courses at UCLA, USC and the California School of Professional Psychology in Los Angeles. She was also Coordinator of Geriatric Services at the Didi Hirsch Community Mental Health Center in Culver City. When the Zarits moved to State College in 1986, Judy became an adjunct assistant professor in the Penn State University Department of Psychology and also established her private practice. For many years she also consulted with several nursing homes and assisted living facilities, and the Lebanon VA Hospital. She published 22 articles and chapters and co-authored two books. She has presented papers and workshops at professional conferences across the United States.

About our Live Interactive Webinars

If you've never experienced one of our Webinars, we think you will like this modality. We make it easy. The Zoom Webinar we use requires no special software. You can view our Webinars on any internet connected device that has sound. You don't need a camera. We email the Zoom links with clear instructions, reminders and lots of backup support.

With our Zoom Webinars you will not see the other attendees, but you will have several ways to interact with our speakers in real time. There is no posttest. The CE credits you earn count as in-person by most professional boards. We will email your certificate within a week of the Webinar. It takes us a few days to verify your attendance and the completion of your Feedback form.

We do not provide CE credit to webinar participants watching in groups. Attendees must register and login individually to receive credit. Please contact us if you have additional questions or concerns.
